Notice of Amendments to Rule 67.11 Wood Products Coating Operations

On August 13, 1997, the Air Pollution Control District adopted amendments to Rule 67.11, an existing rule that regulates emissions of volatile organic compounds (VOCs) from wood products coating (painting) and cleanup operations. The amendments postpone the applicability of lower VOC limits for all coatings until July 1, 2005. The amendments also update test methods and definitions, and provide other minor clarifications described as follows:

Definitions	Deletes or amends certain definitions for clarification.
VOC Limits	Delays implementation of lower VOC limits specified in Subsection (d)(2)(iii) until July 1, 2005. Adds a new coating category for conversion varnishes for new wood products.
Test Methods	Updates and adds new test methods for determining compliance with the rule.
